

ICT/IT is an emerging technology with profound scope and opportunities. Anyone interested and willing to learn the ICT Technology to achieve an individual objectives to educate and gain skills in ensuring effective and proper use of ICT technology and skills towards working for the outsourcing job market, self-employment and income. However, basic ICT knowledge and skills are often lacking due to lack of opportunities to learn the know-how & skills to employ.

This course is designed to strengthen the ICT skills and confidence of participating individuals to:

Gain ICT knowledge and understanding how it works in real terms/ real world

Use ICT competencies & skills more efficiently and effectively.